It's All Happening in Pioneer Square

Pioneer Square is Seattle's original downtown. Rebuilt after the devastating "Great Fire" of 1889, the district is characterized by charming 19th century brick and stone buildings and some of the nation's best surviving collections of Romanesque Revival style architecture. Today, Pioneer Square is a busy, destination neighborhood with abundant transportation options, a dynamic arts destination and a vibrant street scene.

Retailers and restaurants are thriving in Seattle's latest "it" neighborhood and are fed by an extensive and growing residential community, daytime office tenants, evening sports fans and 24/7 destination visitors. In addition to prominent businesses throughout Pioneer Square, Hudson Pacific Properties has curated a collection of notable retailers within King Street Crossing.

The Future Seattle Waterfront

Steps from King Street Crossing, the Seattle Waterfront Program will transform Seattle's central waterfront.

Currently underway, the waterfront will be completely transformed from Pioneer Square to Belltown. The program includes removal of the Alaskan Way Viaduct, the rebuilt Elliott Bay Seawall, 20 acres of new and improved public space, improved connections between center city neighborhoods and Elliott Bay, critical utility infrastructure, and new Alaskan Way and Elliott Way surface streets.

- Landscaped promenade
- Protected bike path
- Rebuilt Piers 62/63 floating dock
- Waterfront park
- Pike Place Market's expanded "marketfront"

- Sounder Rail Station
- King Street Amtrack Station
- Seattle Streetcar
