100 ROY

METROPOLITAN MARKET

Situated in the heart of uptown in downtown Seattle

The project is a seven-story mixed-use building on Roy Street. It comprises 169 residential units and 7,052 square feet of retail/restaurant space. The site is located directly across the street from high-end grocer Metropolitan Market.

Seattle is widely recognized as a hub for technology and medical research

With several major companies based in downtown Seattle. These include Amazon, Google, the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation, Facebook, Tableau Software, Adobe, The Fred Hutchinson Cancer Research Center, Dexter Yards and the Allen Institute for Brain Science.

Two blocks from climate pledge arena, an 800,000 sf arena hosting up-to 18,100 attendees for their headliner concerts and Kraken NHL team events.

100 Roy is conveniently positioned just north of Seattle Center, a prominent regional hub for entertainment, arts, and culture, the neighborhood boasts several significant landmarks including the iconic Seattle Space Needle, McCaw Hall, Memorial Stadium, Chihuly Garden and Glass, and the Museum of Pop Culture (MoPop). Art patrons and area residents dine at Seattle's most trend setting eateries surrounding Seattle Center. One block to the south, Seattle Center hosts a diverse array of cultural events and festivals throughout the year, including well-known events such as Bumbershoot, Northwest Folklife Festival, Bite of Seattle, and Seattle International Film Festival.
