BUILDING

1500 FOURTH AVENUE | SEATTLE

MODERN UPGRADES

Completed building renovations have brought the modern & vintage together for a new generation of creative office space needs.

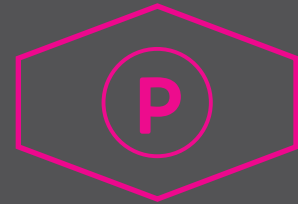

Flexible floor plate configurations and on-site amenities will be added for the modern office tenant.

LOCATION IS KEY

Phenomenal retail, shopping therapy, delicious lunch & dinner options are all within a block or less of the building.

Westlake Park is the activated heart of Seattle. Daily rotating food truck offerings are right out your door!

PARKING GALORE

No parking? No problem! Over 17 parking garages are within a 3-block radius of the Seaboard Building.

Secure, on-site bike storage and showers available for tenants.

Metro, commuter buses, and Link Light Rail are right outside your door.

SEABOARD BUILDING

BUILDING HISTORY

The Seaboard Building, designated a National Historic Landmark in 2002, is located in the heart of downtown Seattle. Rising above Westlake Center, the Seaboard Building with its beautiful terra cotta facade was constructed in 1907 as the Northern Bank and Trust Building.

Today, the building is home to a mix of urban residential city homes, offices and retail space.
