HISTORY OF INNOVATION

PAST

PRESENT

BOB BLUME ON
OPENING DAY - OCT. 1966

- Bob Blume, founder of Capital Development Company, was the original developer of the South Sound Center in 1966. It opened with 450,000 SF and 53 retail tenants and was the first interior mall in Thurston County.
- In 2001, Capital Development Company continued to innovate and stay ahead of the shopping center trends and “de-malled” the majority of the interior space of South Sound Center to bring in Target.
- Today, Capital Development Company is still owned and operated by the third generation of the Blume family and excited to grow and serve the Thurston County Community throughout their real estate portfolio.

CITY SUMMARY

LACEY is a charming city located in Thurston County, just outside of the state capital, Olympia. Known for its abundance of parks, lakes, and outdoor recreational spaces, Lacey offers a balanced lifestyle with beautiful natural surroundings and convenient urban amenities. The city boasts a thriving community with a mix of young families, working professionals, and students from nearby Saint Martin's University. Lacey provides easy access to the bustling cities of Seattle and Tacoma while maintaining a welcoming, small-town atmosphere.
