This property presents an exceptional opportunity for retailers or restaurateurs seeking a modern, high-visibility location within a thriving urban district. Its striking architecture—highlighted by 17-foot ceilings and expansive storefront glass—creates an inviting and contemporary presence that appeals to both vehicle and foot traffic. The space's adjacency to brand-new, high-density apartments ensures a consistent stream of nearby residents and walk-in customers.

Strategically located among Spokane's most recognizable local brands—Indaba Coffee, Uno Mas Mexican Restaurant, and Bellwether Brewery—the property sits at the center of an energetic and walkable node known for creative, community-focused businesses. The combination of daily neighborhood activity and steady commuter traffic, averaging 17,100 vehicles per day, offers exceptional exposure and access for tenants.

Designed for flexibility, the space can accommodate a range of uses, from boutique retail to full-service dining, with options for a Type I hood and outdoor patio. Tenant improvements are negotiable, allowing users to tailor the environment to their brand vision. With NNN expenses estimated at only $4.00/SF annually, this property offers strong value and visibility in one of Spokane's most active commercial corridors.
