NEIGHBORHOOD

Eastlake is a vibrant Seattle neighborhood located on the eastern shore of Lake Union, between South Lake Union and the University District. Small town atmosphere meets urban vibe with an eclectic mix of residents who are very supportive of local businesses. With floating homes, high residential and office density, outdoor recreation, waterfront parks and some of the city's favorite eateries, this neighborhood is fun and lively with a great sense of community. The University of Washington sits directly to the North; Amazon's headquarters and Fred Hutchinson Cancer Research Center sit along the southern border, making it a high traffic arterial for both commuters and students.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Rare opportunity to lease light-filled restaurant/retail space with a prime location in Seattle's charming Eastlake neighborhood
- Located on the street-level of a modern mixed-use office/retail building with 51,000 sq ft of office space
- Retail storefronts are designed with stone columns, expansive storefronts for high visibility, and glass canopies to shelter pedestrians
- Central location gives it easy access to I-5, SR-520, South Lake Union, Capitol Hill, University District and downtown Seattle within minutes
- Common area bathrooms and lobby
- Reserved garage parking: 1.6 stalls per 1,000 SF available for $165/stall/month.
- Surrounding neighborhood tenants include Son of a Butcher, 14 Carrot Cafe, Pecado Bueno, Armistice Coffee, Serafina, Cichetti, Little Water Cantina, and Otter Bar and Burger
- Rental rate $34/SF/YR/modified gross. Tenant pays utilities.
