About Mukilteo Neighborhood

Mukilteo is a scenic waterfront city in Snohomish County, known for its high quality of life and small-town charm. A major transportation hub, it offers connections to Whidbey Island via the Washington State Ferries, Sounder trains to Seattle, and public transit to nearby communities. The waterfront is linked to the city by the Mukilteo Speedway (State Route 525), which also serves ferry traffic.

Because of its combination of waterfront living, scenic surroundings, and easy access to Seattle, Mukilteo appeals to residents seeking tranquility without sacrificing convenience to urban amenities, core employment and cultural centers.

Median household income ~1.5x the national average, reflecting a high-income demographic
