About Westlake Area

Westlake is a cozy, upscale neighborhood along the west shore of Lake Union, offering a peaceful waterfront setting with floating homes, marina access, and scenic lake views. Its excellent walkability and strong transit connections make it unusually convenient for a waterfront area, giving it an urban feel without the congestion of downtown.

Because it sits just north of downtown and borders South Lake Union—Seattle’s major tech and biotech hub—Westlake is especially appealing to professionals and companies seeking a central, prestigious location with short commutes. It consistently ranks as one of Seattle’s most desirable waterfront neighborhoods, attracting people who want the benefits of lakeside living while staying close to the city’s core employment and cultural centers.
