Investment Highlights

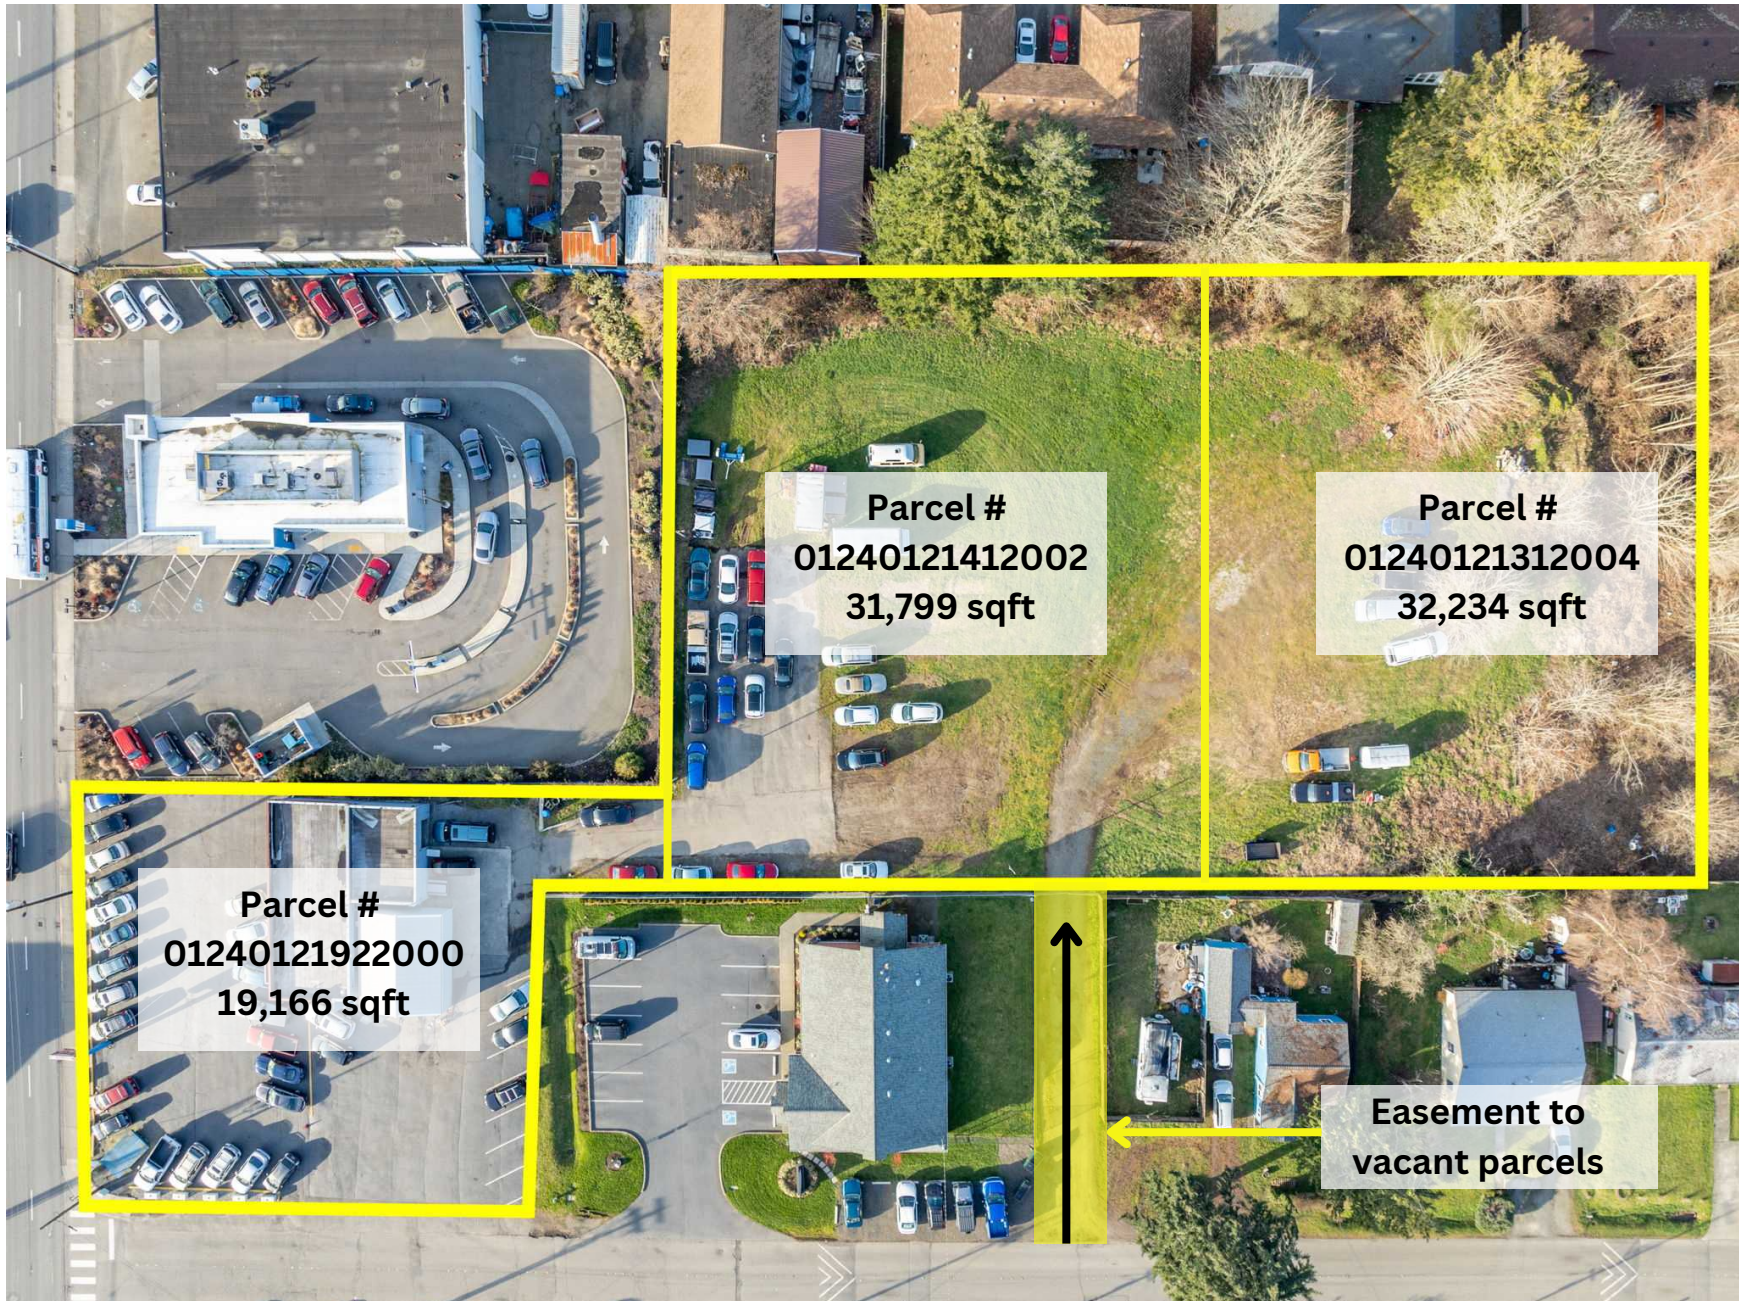

Property

The car dealership property, nestled on the corner of Wheaton Way and Ivy holds a unique status within the community, having been grandfathered into the zoning regulations. With its roots tracing back, the property predates the current zoning ordinances, lending it a special exemption from certain restrictions. This status acknowledges its longstanding contribution to the local economy and identity.

Redevelopment

The sale of the 83,000 square foot property presents an exciting opportunity for potential redevelopment. With its expansive size and versatile layout, the property holds promise for a wide range of transformative projects. Developers may envision a variety of possibilities, from creating a mixed-use complex with retail, residential, and commercial spaces to repurposing the site for a single large-scale venture. Its location could further enhance its appeal, offering accessibility and visibility that could attract both businesses and residents. As stakeholders explore the potential of this property, they have the chance to contribute to the evolution of the surrounding community, breathing new life into the area and unlocking its full potential for economic and social growth.

GC- General Commercial

The intent of the general commercial (GC) district is to provide locations for high intensity commercial uses serving the entire community while preserving views, forested areas, and buffering impacts to adjacent residential areas. The corridor accommodates access to businesses by automobile while also creating a pedestrian-friendly, transit-supporting corridor.
