Callidora's success is built on the culture instilled by its founder and is carried through by those who have continued their association throughout the years. Callidora's founder Kaylee Davis's motto is "When you take care of your people, they take care of your business". Never has any culture created by a business owner been truer.

The salon is fitted with booth fixtures, washing stations, and furniture all provided by Callidora coupled with scheduling software, a receptionist, towels, and laundry service.

With the base operations of 12 hair stylists, only 3 can take new clients and 2 of them are booked out 6 weeks. Of the current 4 nail techs only one is accepting new clients she's typically a week out. Callidora turns away 90% of all call-ins and typically 5-6 call-ins a day try to book an appointment.

The Salon has an exceptional retail following as the only salon in the area with exclusivity for Bare Minerals, excluding ULTA.

This salon and property is priced to sell, including building, fixtures, equipment, and inventory. Leap into salon ownership without the hassle of starting from scratch.
