SEA-TAC

The city limits embrace 10.5 square miles, including the airport and more than 32,000 residents, and swells with more than 80,000 workers and travelers on an average weekday. The city is home to approximately 950 business, about 70 of which are “Fortune 1000” companies. Companies such as Alaska Air and Horizon have their headquarters in SeaTac.

With a regional economic impact of more than $22.5 billion in business revenue, SEA generates more than 151,400 jobs (87,300 direct jobs), representing over $3.6 billion in direct earnings and more than $442 million in state and local taxes.

SEA-TAC AIRPORT'S GROWING ECONOMIC POTENTIAL

Driven by the region's economic strength, the rate of air travel continues to grow. Total annual passenger counts are expected to nearly double, to a projected 66 million by 2034, compared to the airport's current volume. This surge in activity means tens of thousands of new airport-dependent jobs will be created on-site and in the tourism industry. Expanding the airport to accommodate this growth will generate thousands of construction jobs and other opportunities for businesses large and small. Plans include a new international arrivals facility, renovation of the north part of the airport and an upgrade of the baggage system.
