AREA OVERVIEW

CALDWELL, IDAHO | JUST NAMED FASTEST GROWING CITY IN IDAHO WITH 21.5% GROWTH

Caldwell, Idaho, is a thriving city in the Treasure Valley, approximately 25 miles west of Boise. Established in the late 19th century, Caldwell has deep agricultural roots and has long been a hub for farming, particularly in crop production and the burgeoning wine industry. The city boasts a historic downtown area, centered around the revitalized Indian Creek Plaza, a popular venue that hosts numerous community events, farmers' markets, and seasonal festivals. This vibrant space has become a focal point for residents and visitors, reflecting Caldwell's commitment to preserving its heritage while embracing growth and development.

Education and culture also play a significant role in Caldwell's identity. The College of Idaho, a small, prestigious liberal arts college, is located in the heart of the city and contributes to its intellectual and cultural vibrancy. Caldwell's close-knit community is characterized by a blend of small-town charm and the conveniences of a larger urban area, thanks to its proximity to Boise. As the city continues to grow, it maintains a balance between honoring its historical roots and welcoming new opportunities for business and residential expansion, making it an attractive place to live, work, and visit.
