Market Overview

Nestled just steps from 1st Street's vibrant retail corridor, the site is surrounded by a dynamic mix of local shops, dining, civic institutions, and community events, attracting consistent foot traffic and tourism throughout the year. This central location places it within walking distance of Snohomish's historic riverfront, established neighborhoods, and numerous visitor attractions—making it an ideal canvas for mixed-use or destination-oriented redevelopment.

The property also enjoys excellent regional connectivity, with quick access to State Route 9 and State Route 2, linking it to Everett, Monroe, Lake Stevens, and the broader Puget Sound region. As Snohomish continues to experience residential growth and renewed investment in its downtown, 119–125 Avenue B stands out as a rare opportunity to shape the next chapter of the revitalization in one of Washington's most beloved small cities.

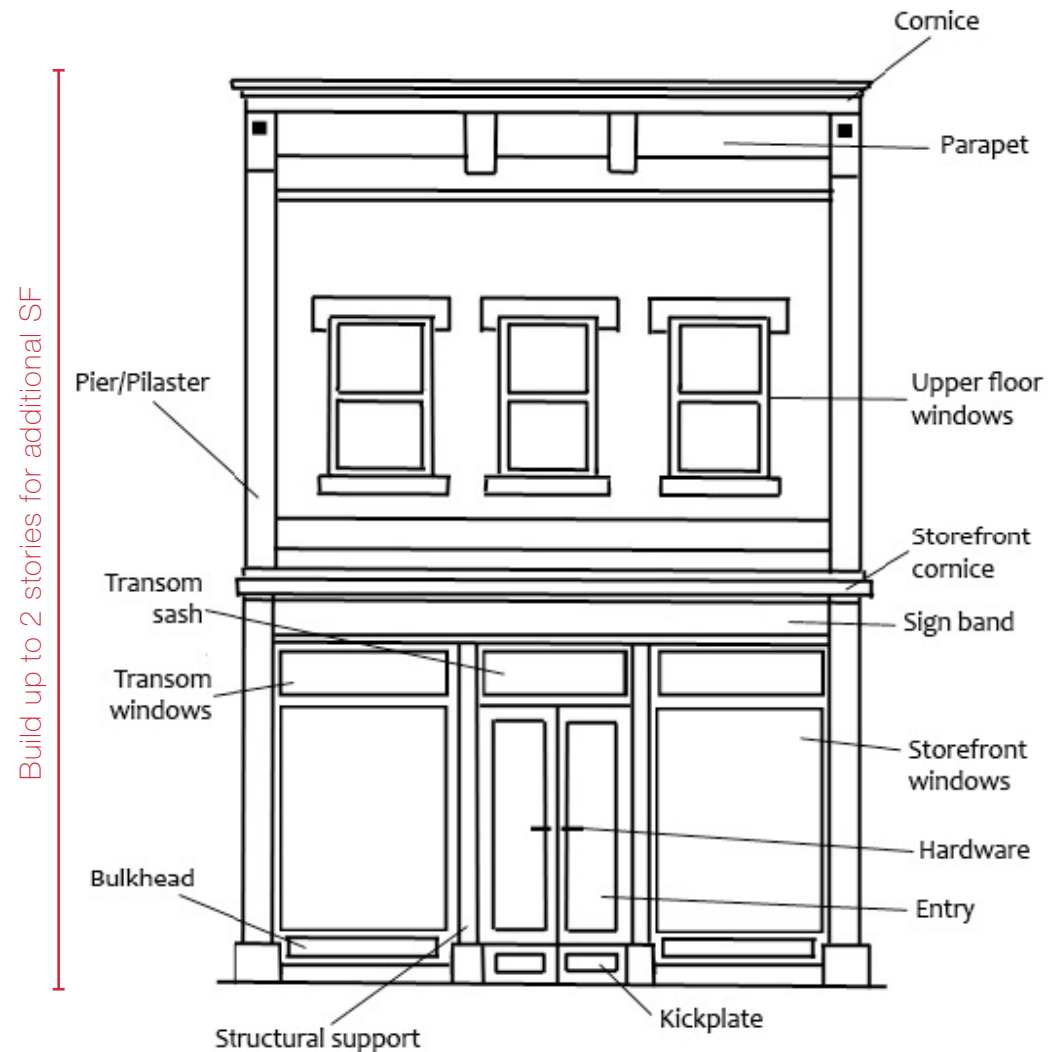

Positioned just 30 miles northeast of Seattle, Snohomish blends small-town character with strategic accessibility, making it an increasingly attractive destination for residents, businesses, and visitors alike. Snohomish boasts a vibrant downtown, highly rated schools, and proximity to major employment centers. The city has seen a rise in demand for housing to support its aging population and newcomers. For those seeking an escape from the suburbs, Snohomish offers a return to charm, walkability, and genuine community.

Redevelopment Design Standards

Snohomish's Historic Business District differs from modern commercial corridors because of its historic buildings and pedestrian scale. This area is the heart of historic Snohomish, and reflects the unique character of the community. The vibrant and active streetscape is enhanced by its unique, historic structures, which are enjoyed by residents, businesses, and visitors. Preservation and restoration of these existing buildings is a priority of the City.

Economic development and ongoing investment in the Historic Business District are encouraged to maintain its importance as the historic and cultural heart of the city. Adaptive re-use of existing structures promotes sustainable preservation of historic assets. Within this district, buildings may be up to two (2) stories in height for additional square footage when they align with historic design standards and maintain the district's pedestrian scale. The City and Design Review Board make every effort to provide guidance to commercial building owners and tenants in order to attract new customers while promoting an appreciation of the historic architecture that makes this place such a destination.
