Executive Summary

Walgreens has ~ 5 years of term remaining before the next renewal. The tenant controls the space until 2081, but has its first termination option in 2031 and every 5 years afterwards. The rent is flat at $414,999 per year, NNN but has a percentage rent override of 2.0% of gross sales and 0.5% of food and prescriptions. Tenant also has the right of first refusal on the purchase, but I've asked and they don't seem interested in buying. The asking price is $6,200,000 or ~$418 per square foot. The asking cap rate is 6.7%. There is a drive thru for the pharmacy. Landlord is responsible for structural repairs and maintenance. The structure was built for Walgreens in 2006. Parking ratio is 4.18/1000 SF.

Neighborhood Map

City of Kennewick Overview

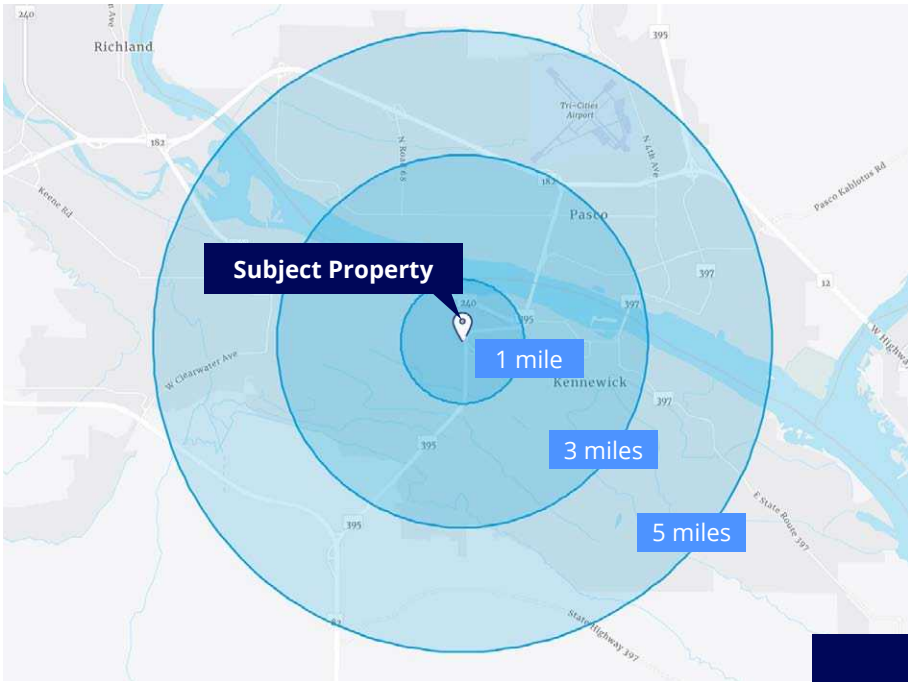

Kennewick, Washington, is a lively Tri-Cities community known for its riverfront parks, trail networks, and family-friendly amenities. The city offers plentiful shopping and dining—from the Columbia Center Mall to boutique districts—along with entertainment venues like the Toyota Center and Three Rivers Convention Center.

Residents enjoy easy access to outdoor recreation, including boating on the Columbia River, golf courses, and well-maintained neighborhood parks. Healthcare, schools, and everyday services are readily available, making the city convenient and livable.

Economically, Kennewick has a diverse base that includes retail, healthcare, manufacturing, and construction. A relatively low cost of living and no state income tax help attract both businesses and new residents. The city continues to see steady population and job growth, contributing to an increasingly dynamic regional economy.

Ongoing projects—such as the redevelopment of Vista Field and improvements to waterfront areas—are strengthening the local economy and expanding opportunities for housing, commerce, and tourism. These revitalization efforts aim to create walkable, mixed-use districts that enhance quality of life. As a regional hub, Kennewick is well positioned for continued growth in the coming years.
