SELLER DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

1902-1904 W CASINO RD, EVERETT WA

LINE 1.I "ARE THER ANY ZONING VIOLATIONS, NONCONFORMING USES, OR ANY UNUSAL RESTRICTIONS ON THE PROPERTY...?"

The building permit that was issued upon occupancy of the building had a discrepancy. The permit issued by the City of Everett showed 10 units per building; the permit given to the prior owner showed 11 units per building-the difference being the two nonconforming studio apartments. See the attached 2-29-1996 letter of explanation from Donna Lambourn, CCIM

LINE 4 A "HAS THE ROOF LEAKED WITHIN THE LAST 5 YEARS?"

Both apartment buildings were built with flat, torch down roofs when built in 1986. This led to numerous leaks. In 2023 Diamond Roofers LLP installed Duro-Tuff PVC roofing including carpentry repairs, full plywood installation, insulation, and new gutters on both roofs at a cost of $163,333.

Dear Roger:

I am writing this letter so as to fully document in writing for you what has happened with regard to the Anthem Apartments.

As you are aware, I listed the Anthem as 22 units; i.e. two 11 unit buildings. Tax rolls, previous appraisal, Mr. Behar (the current owner) etc. all indicated this to be true. As we proceeded through the process of the sale to you, when the appraiser went to the City of Everett to verify the zoning and use, discovered that the property was only permitted for two 10 unit buildings; i.e. 20 units total. When I started digging into this to try to find an additional permit or variance or whatever, I found all the documentation Mr. Behar had from when he purchased the building indicated that he had purchased the building as a 22 unit and that his appraisal actually showed it as a legal and conforming use. In further discussion with Mr. Behar, he indicated that when he purchased the building, there had been a problem because Mr. Jungaro, who was the builder and owner of the building (then known as The Flamingo Apartment) had never obtained an occupancy permit. Mr. Behar had refused to close until one had been issued. On the day of closing he was presented with two occupancy permits showing 2 eleven unit buildings. I also checked with the agents from Marcus Millichap. Their records and conversations all confirmed the same. I went to the City and got copies of all the permits and certificates of occupancy. I then obtained copies of the certificates of occupancy which were in Marcus Millichap's files which had been furnished them by Mr. Jungaro at the time of the closing of the sale between Jungaro and Behar. (In fact, the certificates of occupancy were dated December 28, 1990, and as I understand, the closing of that sale was the next day).

The copies of the Certificates of Occupancy which I received from Marcus Millichap were identical to the ones I had gotten from the City of Everett except that one number had been changed on each of them. The 10 had been changed to an 11.

In the process of my investigation, prior to my knowing anything about the Certificates showing 11 units, I had called Mr. Jungaro to see if he could shed any light on what had happened and where I could find documentation regarding the two additional units. His first comment to me was that there was a Certificate of Occupancy which showed that there was two 11 unit buildings there. As my investigation progressed, it became pretty apparent to me what had happened and who had changed the certificates. Proving this for the Court may be quite a different matter.

I am enclosing copies of the four certificates just in case there should ever be a question about this in the future. As we have discussed and you have acknowledged, The Anthem Apartments which you are buying are being sold to you as two ten unit buildings with two illegal units in them which may be closed down by the City of Everett. Just to complete the file, I am also enclosing copies of pages from the appraisal done in 1990 when Mr. Behar bought the buildings and copies of the permits obtained from the City.

Dave Watkins has asked me to clarify for you where the process with the Behar's trying to recover damages from Jungaro stands. At this time, there has been no settlement. They have been in negotiations, but Mr. Jungaro seems to want to hold out. The Behar's have filed suit against him. As you know Mr. Behar had surgery a couple of weeks ago to remove a tumor at the base of his brain which has turned out to be a much more serious and recovery more difficult than expected. The stress of dealing with this closing added to his health problems have made Mr. Behar just want the attorney to take over dealing with Mr. Jungaro and he has chosen to go ahead and close and take his chances on recovery from Mr. Jungaro in court.

Dave has indicated that you have concerns whether or not this could in any way tie up the buildings in litigation. Mr. Behar is suing Mr. Jungaro. Once this property is transferred to you, Mr. Jungaro can no longer even try to talk about buying the property back unless he wants to come and buy it back from you. There is no way that the property itself can be tied up. It is strictly a suit for damages. I believe your only concern at this point would be whether the City may decide to come in and tell you to close down the two illegal units. Since they are handicapped units, and considering the background, you may be able to convince them to let them continue. If they won't, then you may want to consider turning them into extra storage and charging for that to add extra income.

As I expressed to you some time ago Roger, this sale is being made to you with full disclosure of our findings and I am furnishing you with the enclosed documents and this letter in case you ever have need of them in the future.

Sincerely yours,

Donna M. Lambourn, CCIM
