A rare opportunity to own a distinctive piece of Ballard history, the Ballard Livery Building is a two-story, flatiron-style brick landmark prominently positioned on Ballard Avenue NW in Seattle. Comprising approximately 3,420 square feet, this character-rich property blends late-1800s architectural charm—exposed brick, strong street presence, and unique geometry—with flexible commercial potential. Its highly visible corner location benefits from exceptional pedestrian traffic and immediate proximity to Ballard’s vibrant mix of retail, dining, and nightlife. Offered for sale, the building presents an exceptional opportunity for an owner-user or investor seeking a truly iconic asset in one of Seattle’s most established and sought-after neighborhood commercial corridors
