ABOUT BELLTOWN

EXPLORE: Urban nature seekers can explore the Olympic Sculpture Park (2901 Western Ave), with its 20 contemporary sculptures. Watch artisans create stunning works through the windows at the Seattle Glassblowing Studio (2227 5th Ave). In the evening, check the lineup at storied venue The Crocodile (2505 1st Ave) or the legendary Moore Theatre (1932 2nd Ave), which opened its doors in 1907 and is Seattle's oldest active theater.

EAT & DRINK: Start the morning with mochi doughnuts from Dahlia Bakery. Dive into bowls and choripan sandwiches at Garzón, a Latinx street food spot inside the mural-filled Black Cat Bar. The colorful patio at Bangrak Market. On the sweet side, stop by La Parisienne French Bakery for fluffy croissants and custardy canelés.

SHOP: Browse chic attire, art and accessories. Music lovers can dig through crates records at Singles Going Steady. Sniff along to the perfect candle scent at Noir Lux Candle Co.
