Executive Housing | Short Term Rental Opportunity

Montrose on the Park presents a short term rental opportunity to provide significant rental upside immediately, a rare asset in Spokane's premier South Hill neighborhood. Currently operating as a fully leased long-term rental income property with below market rents. Located directly across from Manito Park, this four-building community, built in 2011, spans ±7,528 square feet on a ±0.36-acre parcel and includes covered parking for residents. Each of the eight thoughtfully designed units features in-suite laundry, contemporary finishes, and efficient layouts that appeal to quality-conscious renters. Situated just minutes from Spokane's Medical District and Downtown core, the property's location also positions it as an exceptional candidate for short-term or medium-term rental conversion, catering to the robust sports tourism, traveling medical professionals, visiting faculty, and hospital staff seeking furnished housing close to major healthcare employers.
