LOCATION OVERVIEW

GRANITE FALLS

Granite Falls, Washington, is a vibrant and appealing city that is located between the Pilchuck and Stillaguamish rivers in the western foothills of the Cascade Range, northeast of Lake Stevens and Marysville

The city is named for a waterfall on the river that is located north of downtown on the Stillaguamish River, also accessible via the Mount Loop Highway. The city's close proximity to outdoor recreational opportunities makes it an ideal destination for nature enthusiasts and adventurers. With affordable housing prices, compared to neighboring cities in Snohomish County, and quality school district, Granite Falls is an ideal suburb for families looking to own a home and raise a family.

SNOHOMISH COUNTY

Snohomish County is the state's largest manufacturing center and the second largest west of the Mississippi river. Home to Boeing's largest manufacturing facility, known as the The Everett Factory, all of the aerospace company's wide-body jets are built minutes from Casino Square. The factory is the world's largest building by volume at 472 million cubic feet, and is expanding 23 million cubic feet to house equipment for cutting edge robot-driven assembly. Snohomish county also produces much more than just airplanes with major employers manufacturing medical devices, electronic equipment, solar modules and inverters, pharmaceuticals, and recreation equipment. Its proximity to Seattle makes Snohomish County a location for high tech employers seeking a suburban location. T-Mobile has an engineering center, Amgen has a research facility, Zumiez has their corporate headquarters, and Google and AT&T have customer service centers. The county is also designated by the state as the center of the medical device industry in Washington. Two significant companies in the ultrasound space, Philips and Sonosite, have headquarters in Snohomish County.

Compared with other Washington State counties, Snohomish County ranks 1st in concentration of manufacturing jobs and 2nd in number of tech jobs.
